Brad Pitt is the star of the new film, Bullet Train, directed by David Leitch. Pitt plays Ladybug, a hitman who has been hired to steal a briefcase on a bullet train. Ladybug is not a lucky guy, and he's not having a lucky day. He's trying to get his life back on track by following the rules of his therapist, but that's not working out so well. Ladybug's day is about to get a lot worse.

Ladybug's problems are only beginning when he gets on the train. Waiting for him are Lemon (Brian Tyree Henry) and Tangerine (Aaron Taylor-Johnson), two assassins who are also after the briefcase. Ladybug's day is about to get a lot worse.
