A. Cynthia, my beautiful bride, and I:

(1) Are continuing to hunker down in Week 2 of the corona pandemic. And in case you're wondering what we are doing now that we can't eat out at restaurants, Cynthia has prepared several delicious meals. In fact, just looking at this grilled cheese and bacon sandwich has me getting hungry as I write this.

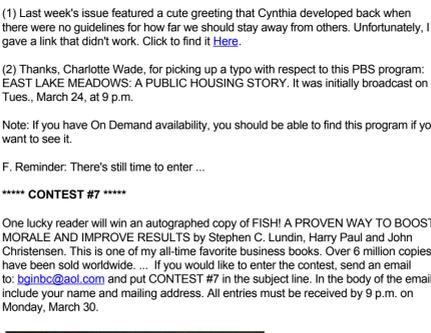

(2) We are also trying to walk every day. Recently, we took a nice trek at the Folk Arts Center where we were joined (six feet away from us) by our friends Tom and Marcy Gallagher.

B. Before all hell broke loose because of the pandemic:

(1) I had the pleasure of emceeing the Happy Together troupe in an amazing performance at The Abbey of St. Thomas. Pictured, l.r. Jessica Johnson, Ryan Garcia, Carol Duermitt, Jay Ponton and Ellen Pappas. (Not pictured: Richard Shulman) ... To see this particular song that they are singing, please click: Here.

(2) Afterward, we had some tasty pizza at Blaze Pizza where we joined by George Pappas (second from left). The purpose was to plan an upcoming April show at Attic Sait that has been unfortunately postponed. Just as soon as there's a new dates, we will let you know.

C. Condolences to:

- (1) Lily Bartleson and family on the passing of Jana Marie Bartleson, Lily's mother.
- (2) Charlie Wilson and family on the passing of Charlie's mother.
- (3) Betsy Edwards Sell and family on the passing of Betsy's cousin.

D. Congratulations to Cheryl Fishman and Migue on the birth of Alenea, their baby girl, as well as to Billy and Vivian Fishman on becoming grandparents.

E. Corrections:

(1) Last week's issue featured a cute greeting that Cynthia developed back when there were no guidelines for how far we should stay away from others. Unfortunately, I gave a link that didn't work. Click to find it Here.

***** BLAINESWORLD BEST AWARD *****

This week, it goes to Aran Pelly--a service tech with All Seasons Heating and Air Conditioning. ... We recently had our system serviced, and we were told by a company (that shall remain nameless) that we had used for several years that we now had major problems. We were also told that we had to shut down the system at once, and it wouldn't be safe to run until we bought a new system at a cost ranging from $12-15,000. ... I had my doubts about this recommendation, especially since the system had been running fine. And I could not see any of the problems that were being pointed out to me. ... So I contacted my home warranty company for its recommendation and was told to call All Seasons for a second opinion. Aran came out the very next day, inspected everything and found no problems. A few days later, I had him come back out to install an iWave-R Residential Air Cleaner. ... I have found both Aran and All Seasons to be extremely professional, as well as friendly, and look forward to continue to use the company for all our heating and air conditioning needs.

For more information, click: Here or call: 828.651.9998.

SPECIAL THANKS to Pat Hannigan, my heating and air conditioning guru, for his advice from afar with respect to the recommendations we had been given.

MR. HELPFUL HERE ... you may be singing "Happy Birthday" twice as you wash your hands, but frankly, I'm a bit tired of that song ... and much prefer this one that I've just found: "Twenty Seconds" ... To see me performing it, click: Here. ... It was written by Marc Shaiman and Scott Wittman, the duo who have written songs for the Broadway musicals HAIRSPRAY and CATCH ME IF YOU CAN, the film musical MARY POPPINS RETURNS and for television, SNASH, among other tunes. ... For more information, lyrics, piano tracks and sheet music in varying keys, please click: Here.

3. Joke 1

A Sunday school teacher is concerned that his students might be a little confused about Jesus because of the all the emphasis on Santa Claus, gift-giving, etc., so he asks his class, "Where is Jesus today?" ... Steven raises his hand and says, "He's in Heaven." Mary answers, "He's in my heart." Melvin waves his hand furiously and blurts out, "He's in our bathroom!" ... The surprised teacher asks Melvin how he knows this. "Well," he replies, "every morning, my father gets up, bangs on the bathroom door and yells 'Jesus Christ, are you still in there?!"

4. Reviews

A. Saw FAITH, HOPE & LOVE on Netflix, a sweet romantic comedy about two lost souls who have each suffered deep losses. Only when they enter a dance contest as partners do they begin to discover a new perspective on life. Robert Krantz and Peta Muratroy had great chemistry together, and I liked the dance scenes. And while the film isn't overly realistic, I liked it--a lot. NR, but appreciate for just about any age.

Note: It is faith-based, so if you don't like that kind of film, this one might not be for you. That said, I would suggest you give it a try.

B. Bill Lewis: Diane and I just watched RICHARD JEWELL, and we both loved it. We thought it was a great movie.

My reaction: I agree. It was one of my favorite movies last year. I'm just disappointed that it did not get more recognition during the awards season.

C. Heard BECAUSE I SAID SO! THE TRUTH BEHIND THE MYTHS, TALES, AND WARNINGS EVERY GENERATION PASSES DOWN TO ITS KIDS (Tantor Audio), written and read by Ken Jennings. ... The author, best known as the winner of 74 games on JEOPARDY, is a very funny guy. In this book, he combines both humor and fact as he examines whether your parents actually knew best when they advised you not to sit too close to the television or swallow your gum or crack your knuckles. ... In addition, he analyzes such other advice as the following: Don't cross your eyes or they'll stay like that! Feed a cold, starve a fever! Don't touch your Halloween candy until we get it checked out! Never run with scissors. Don't look in the microwave while it's running! And [that] will go down on your permanent record. ... My only regret is that this book wasn't available when I was growing up. Had it been, I could have at least responded to many of the things that my parents warned me about. Yet as I'm typing that last sentence, I'm also smiling since I now recall telling my daughter many of these same things.
