If you're reading this via Facebook or LinkedIn, please be advised that you will get it quicker if you get it via email. Another advantage: You'll never miss it that way because you may not have logged in for a day or two. And in the unlikely event you're not already a subscriber, all you need to do is send an email to: bjnbc@aol.com and put SUBSCRIPTION in the subject line.

A. Cynthia, my beautiful bride, and I:

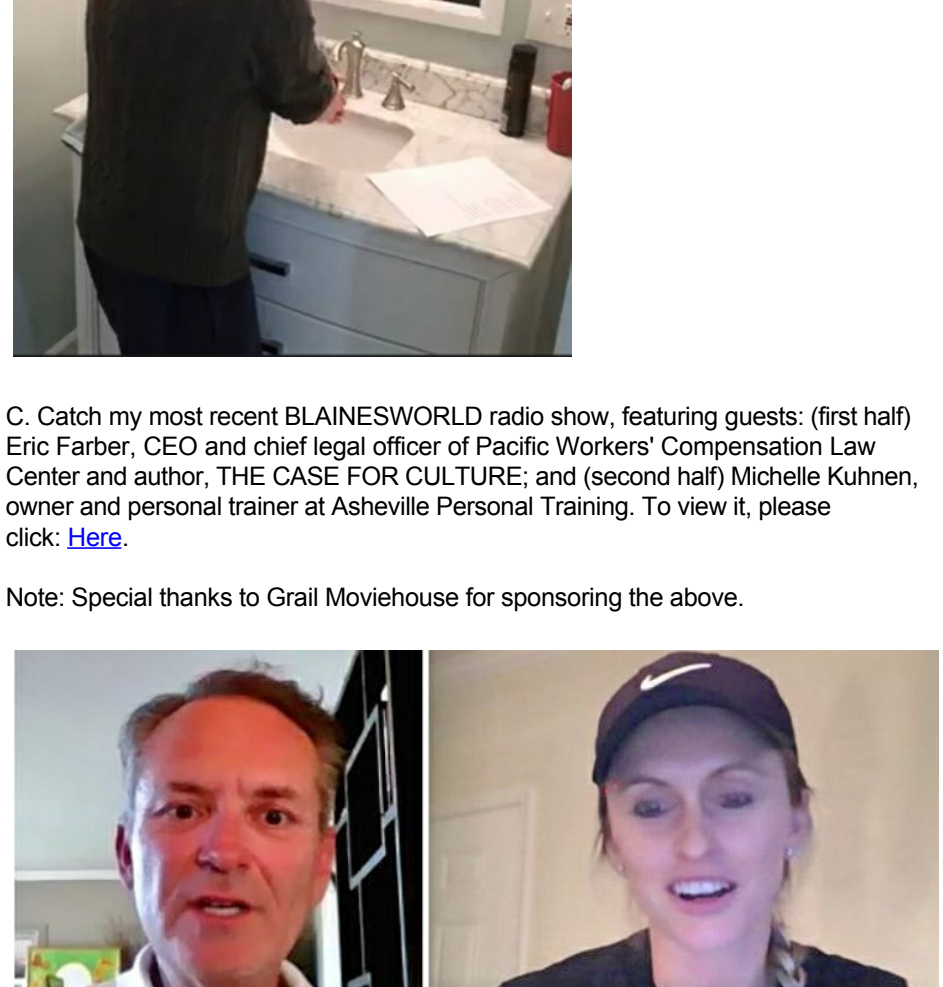

(1) Are continuing to hunker down in Week 5 of the corona pandemic. We even got to go the the movies (that's us in front of the Regal Grande Billmore) and then went for Chinese food at PF Chang's. We miss actually going into both places, but hey, you gotta do what you gotta do.

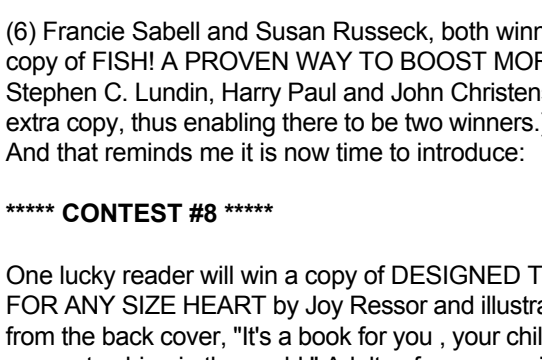

(2) Had a fun porch visit with our friends Ginny Plaisted and Grant Randall (right photo) where we followed social distancing guidelines and used the masks that Ginny made for us. Many thanks, Ginny!

(3) Participated in the first BLAINESWORLD LIVE! show via Zoom, in which 16 friends joined us for some jokes, music and a chance to catch up.

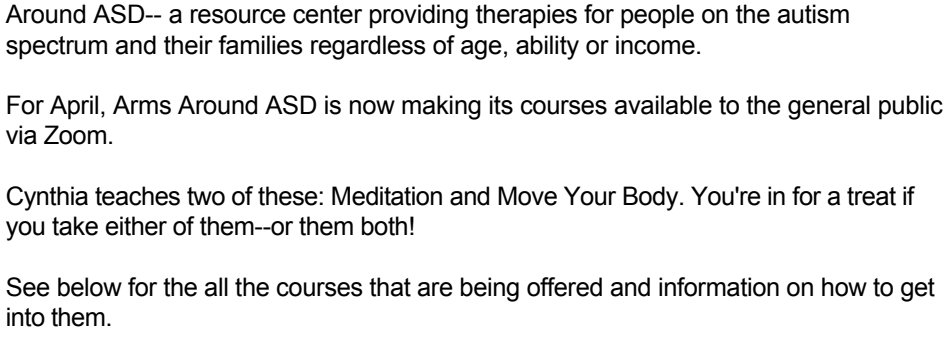

B. MR. HELPFUL HERE ... you may be singing "Happy Birthday" twice as you wash your hands, but frankly, I'm a bit tired of that song ... and much prefer this one that I've just found: "Twenty Seconds." To see me performing it, please click: Here. ... It was written by Marc Shaman and Scott Wittman, the duo who have written songs for the Broadway musicals HAIRSPRAY and CATCH ME IF YOU CAN, the film musical MARY POPPINS RETURNS and for television, SMASH, among other tunes. ... For more information, lyrics, piano tracks and sheet music in varying keys, please click: Here.

C. Catch my most recent BLAINESWORLD radio show, featuring guests: (first half) Eric Farber, CEO and chief legal officer of Pacific Workers' Compensation Law Center and author, THE CASE FOR CULTURE; and (second half) Michelle Kuhnert, owner and personal trainer at Asheville Personal Training. To view it, please click: Here.

Note: Special thanks to Grail Moviehouse for sponsoring the above.

D. Condolence to Salley Williamson and family on the passing of Sally's grandmother.

E. Congratulations to:

- (1) Salley Williamson and Chadd Harbaugh on the birth of Sylvia Jane Harbaugh (Syvie), their baby girl.
- (2) Scott Treadway on his new position as Company Manager at Flat Rock Playhouse.
- (3) Carol Mayhew on being named one of the Quarterly Achievers by Coldwell Banker.
- (4) Meredith Switzer on her appearance on WLOS. To view it, please click: Here.
- (5) Elsten Torres on his new video. To view it, please click: Here.
- (6) Francie Sabell and Susan Rusbeck, both winners of Contest #7: an autographed copy of FISHER A PROVEN WAY TO BOOST MORALE AND IMPROVE RESULTS by Stephen C. Lunden, Harry Paul and John Christensen. (Thanks, Harry, for providing the extra copy, thus enabling there to be two winners.) ... All told, there were three entries. And that reminds me it is now time to introduce:

***** CONTEST #8 *******

One lucky reader will win a copy of DESIGNED TO SHINE! READ ALOUD RHYMES FOR ANY SIZE HEART by Joy Ressor and illustrated by Lauren Connell. ... To quote from the back cover, "It's a book for you, your child or your inner child about loving who we are to shine in the world." Adults of any age will love this, but so will their children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. ... If you would like to enter the contest, send an email to: bjnbc@aol.com and put CONTEST #8 in the subject line. In the body of the email, include your name and mailing address. All entries must be received by 9 p.m. on Monday, April 27.

F. Special invite:

Why Talking About Our Problems Helps So Much (and How to Do It) by Eric Ravenscraft

When your car breaks down, you either know how to fix it or how to find someone who can. Emotions, on the other hand, are a little harder to fix. There is no wrench you can grab or repair shop you can take your feelings to. But you do have one tool in your kit you can always use: talking about your feelings. Even just speaking about your feelings out loud to another person can help. So why do we avoid it or believe it doesn't work?

There are a lot of reasons talking about our problems can be difficult. Some people (especially men) are socialized to internalize feelings, rather than give voice to them. Sometimes the very emotions you're dealing with - like guilt over something you did, or shame about how you think you're perceived - can feel so overwhelming that you can't get up the motivation to talk it out.

4. Reviews

A. SAW BLINDED BY THE LIGHT, a dramedy with music based on a true story about a teenager who discovers Bruce Springsteen and has his life changed as a result. Viveik is appealing in the leading role, and the music is outstanding. It's a feel-good film that will leave you smiling after you see it. Rated PG-13.

Note: I've added it to my list of all-time favorite films. If you'd like to get a copy of that list, send an email to: bjnbc@aol.com and put FAVORITES in the subject line.

B. Heard THE CONFESSION (Random House Audio), written by John Grisham and read by Scott Soverson ... It is a novel about the murder of a high school cheerleader and how an innocent man is arrested for it. ... It kept my attention until the very end. In addition, it got me thinking about whether the death penalty is ever a just punishment for any crime. ... If you're a Grisham fan, and I am, you'll enjoy this book. But those who have never read the author will also enjoy it.

8. Technology tip

The other day, I was taping my radio show on Zoom and got this message (on the screen of the person I was interviewing): "Network bandwidth is low." ... The results was NOT good. There were all sorts of pauses and delays when playing back the show, and as a result, I could not use it--and will have to retape the show.

To make sure that doesn't happen again, I did some research and found the following article informative:
Why Is My Internet So Slow?

To read it, please click: Here.

I then checked my internet speed by clicking this link: Here.

And lastly, I encouraged my friend (the person I was interviewing) to do the same, so this doesn't happen again.

10. A quote I like

Thanks, Brian Dennehy (1938-2020), for your always excellent work in such films as FIRST BLOOD, GORRY PARK, COCOON, PRESUMED INNOCENT, TOMMY BOY and my favorite, DEATH OF A SALESMAN. ... I only regret that I never got to see you on stage, in that your work there earned you two Tony Awards and recognition from VARIETY as "perhaps the foremost living interpreter" of playwright Eugene O'Neill's works. ... 11. Thought for the day

Methinks a lot of teachers are getting similar notes ...

I just had a mom text me this. ❤️👉

Dear Teachers,

Next year, I don't care if you make the school supply list ten pages long. I'll get you whatever you ask for. You want eight dozen pre-sharpened Ticonderoga pencils? They're yours. You want twenty-seven single subject notebooks with real dragon skin covers? I got you. Fifty bottles of hand sanitizer? Seems reasonable. A baby unicorn? I'll make it happen. Whatever you want. Let me know if you have any food restrictions, 'cause I'm hiring you a personal chef. You want a massage to rub your shoulders while you grade papers? Because I can make that happen for you, my Queen.

Y'all, these kids are rotten. Mine. Yours. Karen's. All of them, nerve wracking little monsters, and these sweet Angels that God saw fit to send us to educate our children are freaking ROCK STARS, and we do NOT give them enough credit. Or money. These teachers should all be driving Bentleys. Or better yet, a Rolls Royce with a personal driver. They should all be living in 5000 square foot mansions with in ground heated pools.

So teachers, thank you. Also, I know that I gave birth to them, but I'm gonna need you to come and get your kids before I lose my ever loving mind.

Sincerely,

A Mama Who Has Had Enough of Coronation and Trying To Homeschool these Heathens
