1. Reflections

If you're reading this via Facebook or LinkedIn, please be advised that you will get it quicker if you get it via email. Another advantage- You'll never miss it that way because you may not have logged in for a day or two. And in the unlikely event you're not already a subscriber, all you need to do is send an email to: bjnbtc@aol.com and put SUBSCRIPTION in the subject line.

A. Cynthia, my beautiful bride, and I:

(1) Enjoyed a visit from Chic and Joni Dowbird, our longtime Bucks County, PA, friends ... We first had to stop at Kinspy Krems (left photo), in that they are big fans of that store's donuts--and just had to have an appetizer of some of them before dinner. ... We then went for some tasty barbecue at Moe's Original Bar B Que (right photo).

(2) From there, we saw a fine production of MUSEUM done by the Asheville High School Arts Theatre group. Kudos to all the performers, as well as to CJ Breland (below) for her spot on direction.

B. During the week, I:

(1) Hosted Michele Louzon (on the right in photo), Executive Director of Arms Around ASD, in the first half of my radio show on WPVM ... and James Lee (on the left in photo), Director of Operations at The Salvation Army Boys and Girls Clubs of Buncombe County, in the second half ... To listen, scroll down to the 5.23.2017 show when you click: Here

(2) Attended the closing reception of the Asheville Jewish Film Festival at the Blue Spiral Gallery, featuring great food from Gypsy Queen Cuisine. I had the pleasure of bumping into Mary Gillen (left photo) who deserves credit, along with Rick Chess and Neal Reed, for making the festival the success that it was. ... Afterward, I saw WRESTLING JERUSALEM with my friend Eric Weinberger (right photo). This thought-provoking film from writer-actor Aaron Davidman explored the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

(3) Went with my friend Mike Martinielli (left photo) to Mike's on Main Street in Hendersonville where we were joined by Lee Mulligan, his friend and attorney, for some great salads and fine service from Bo. ... Mike and I then went to Flat Rock Playhouse (right photo) where we saw SMOKEY JOE'S CAFE, a very tuneful musical that runs through May 13. For tickets, please click: Here

(4) Saw my friend Kim Simpson present a terrific art workshop to the dementia unit at Arbor Terrace in Asheville, NC. For more pictures, please click: Here

F. Reminders:

- (1) You can still enter:
***** CONTEST #9 *****
One lucky reader will win a copy of DELEGATION & SUPERVISION by Brian Tracy. I reviewed the book favorably in BLAINESWORLD #1054 and especially liked this idea on giving neutral feedback: The key to giving successful feedback is to make your feedback nonjudgmental. Instead of becoming angry or impatient when something is not done to your satisfaction, simply present the facts of the situation as objective information on performance. Don't imply a mistake or say anything that causes a person to feel defensive. ... To enter the contest: Send an email to: bjnbtc@aol.com and put CONTEST #9 in the subject line. In the body of the email, please include your snail mail address. All entries must be received on or before Monday, May 8, at 9 p.m.
- (2) You've invited to the next event of the Asheville Jewish Business Forum. It takes place on Tuesday, May 9, beginning at 5:30 p.m. at Earth Fare (community room), 1856 Hendersonville Rd, Asheville. There will be a presentation on Jewish Family Services and, also, one attendee will receive a beautiful piece of art done by Robin Morris. For more information about both Robin and the event, please click: Here

***** BLAINESWORLD BEST AWARD *****

This week, it goes to Tommy Lanning--a supervisor with Terminix in Asheville. He has provided pest control services to us for the past several years, and he has done an excellent job. We especially enjoy his friendly, enthusiastic nature. ... To schedule an appointment, call 828.232.1338. ... Tommy is also a member of the Breakin' Ground gospel group. Though we haven't seen him perform yet, we have been impressed by several of the YouTube clips. To see them yourself, please click: Here

Get Happy: Four Well-Being Workouts by Julie Scoffo

Relieving stress and anxiety might help you feel better - for a bit. Martin E.P. Seligman, a professor of psychology at the University of Pennsylvania and a pioneer in the field of positive psychology, does not see alleviating negative emotions as a path to happiness.

"Psychology is generally focused on how to relieve depression, anger and worry," he said. "Freud and Schopenhauer said the most you can ever hope for in life is not to suffer, not to be miserable, and I think that view is empirically false, morally insidious, and a political and educational dead-end."

4. Reviews

There haven't been that many new movies I've wanted to see lately, so instead, I'll share these two recommendations that might be available via DVD rental, TCM, Netflix or Amazon:

A. From my review in BLAINESWORLD #1063: Saw A DOG'S PURPOSE, the sweet story of one devoted dog who finds the meaning of his existence through the lives of several humans he had taught to laugh and love. ... KJ Appa and Britt Robertson do nicely as teen Ethan and teen Hannah who grow up to become adults, well played by Dennis Quaid and Peggy Lipton. Josh Gad is also effective as the dog's voice ... I enjoyed this film and didn't see any visible evidence of animals being mistreated. Rated PG.

B. Saw SUMMER OF '42, a sweet coming-of-age story about a teenager who has a crush on a woman whose husband goes off to war. Gary Grimes and Jennifer O'Neill are both effective as the couple, and Jerry Houser has me laughing in almost every scene from Chicago, how old am I? ... One student in the back of the class raised her hand and said, "You're 44." ... The professor replied, "That's absolutely correct, but tell me, how did you arrive at the answer so quickly?" ... The student said, "You see professor, I have a brother who is 22, and he's only half crazy."

6. Joke 2

This question was asked in a college geography class: "If Philadelphia is 100 miles from New York and Chicago is 1060 miles from Philadelphia and Los Angeles is 2177 miles from Chicago, how old am I?" ... One student in the back of the class raised her hand and said, "You're 44." ... The professor replied, "That's absolutely correct, but tell me, how did you arrive at the answer so quickly?" ... The student said, "You see professor, I have a brother who is 22, and he's only half crazy."

8. Technology tip

Email Attack Hits Google: What to Do if You Clicked by Nicole Perloff

Google said it was investigating an email scam winding its way through inboxes across the country and had disabled the accounts responsible for the spam.

The scheme emerged Wednesday afternoon, when spammers dispatched malicious email, appearing to come from people the recipients knew, beckoning them to click on what appeared to be a shared Google document.

9. Joke 3

WARNING! ... When you drink Vodka over ice, it can give you kidney failure. When you drink rum over ice, it can give you liver failure. When you drink whiskey over ice, it can give you heart problems. When you drink gin over ice, it can give you brain problems. Apparently, ice is really bad for you. ... PLEASE NOTIFY ALL YOUR FRIENDS! (Thanks, Evelyn Blau, for posting.)

10. A quote I like

Reminds me of another advantage about going to the funeral. To quote Yogi Berra, "Always go to other people's funerals, otherwise they won't come to yours."

11. Thought for the day

GREAT WAY TO REMEMBER YOUR PET! If you can't read the sign, it says: "In loving memory of Phoebe ... Please help yourself to a tennis ball for your dog to enjoy. You will wish to pop it back in the box afterwards for another puppy to enjoy. Remember to live each moment just like your dog; with unconditional love, loyalty and happiness." (Thanks, Carol Seufert, for sharing.)
