***** BLAINESWORLD BEST AWARD *****

Thanks, Andy Scarpati, for the following nomination taken from one of his recent Facebook posts:

Say Happy 93rd Birthday to my wife's chiropractor for the past 20 years: Dr. Howard Lamp who is still working out of his home office in the Doylestown area. He has no website, no email, no social media, no advertising, and he is still busy! His chiropractic skills are legendary in the area. And he just returned from a fishing trip in Alaska. I marvel at his enthusiasm for life.

He truly is one of the most amazing beings I've ever met! His knowledge of the human body is outstanding.

His phone number is 215.794.5551.

2. FYI

If you shop Amazon a lot, as we do, you've probably been a bit disappointed lately. Some shipping times take over a month, and certain products just aren't available. ... So when that happens, we take a look at items available on ebay. We've found this to be a worthwhile website to check out.

FYI, part 2

4. Reviews

A. Enjoyed SHOWBIZ KIDS on HBO. It is a documentary about the high-risk high reward business of working as a child actor in the entertainment industry. Featured are interviews with such successful child actors as Henry Thomas, Maria Wilson, Todd Bridges, Evan Rachel Wood, Jada Pinkett Smith, Wil Wheaton and others. I especially liked how the film followed two young hopefuls and their parents as they attempt to find success in show business while maintaining a healthy childhood. NR, but appropriate for anybody over the age of 10.

B. Saw AN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE on TCM. This ecological drama, adapted from an Ibsen play, tells the story of a town doctor who speaks out against the pollution of a local hot springs. Steve McQueen, playing against type, gives a fine performance, as does Charles Durning. I found it interesting. Rated G, but probably would have limited appeal to anybody under the age of 13.

Note: I had the pleasure of appearing in Bette Neveu's TRAITOR (a modern adaptation of the above play) when it ran for three performances at The Magnetic Theatre just as the pandemic was breaking. While I liked the above film, I actually liked the play version I was in better.

8. Technology tip

When you take a picture with your cellphone, iPad or camera, take three pictures. That way, if you're not smiling or your eyes are closed, the odds are pretty good that at least one of the pictures will meet with your approval. And if you get the chance, take a quick look at the pictures that were taken, so if you're not satisfied with them, you have the chance to get them retaken.

11. Thought for the day

A wise teacher once brought balloons to school, told her pupils to blow them up and write their name on one. After the children tossed their balloons into the hall, the teacher moved through the hall mixing them all up. ... The kids were given five minutes to find the balloon with their name on it, but though they searched frantically, no one found their own balloon. ... Then the teacher told them to take the balloon closest to them and give it to the person whose name was on it. In less than two minutes, everyone was holding their own balloon. ... The teacher said to the children, "These balloons are like happiness. We won't find it when we're only searching for our own. But if we care about someone else's happiness, it will ultimately help us find our own." (Thanks, Carole Biro, for sharing.)
