2. FYI

To get ready for the big event, I baked some solar eclipse cookies. But be forewarned: DO NOT LOOK DIRECTLY AT THEM! (Thanks, Barbie Angell, for sharing.)

And now for what y'all have been waiting for; i.e., the eclipse (as seen in NC) ... I got to view it at the Asheville Airport where I was awaiting a flight for my trip up North. It was cloudy, but the person next to me managed to take the picture that can be seen below on the left. ... Frankly, I was not impressed. I looked up at the same sky and snapped the picture that can be seen below on the right, it came out much clearer.

FYI, part 2

Please, I repeat, please do not use the $1, $20, $50 or the $100 American dollar bills as they have the images of former slave owners on them! .... Instead send them all to me, so that I can dispose of them properly. Do not just throw them away. They need to be disposed of properly, and I am a Certified Money Disposer. ... Mail them immediately to me. Rest assured, I will dispose of all your dirty money. ... Message me for the address of where to send these bills. Much obliged for your cooperation. (Thanks, Channah Mohler, for sharing.)

4. Reviews

A. Available via On Disc/Streaming is YENTL, a 1983 musical that was both written and directed by Barbra Streisand. She also stars in this sweet story about a young Jewish woman who has to disguise herself as a boy in order to receive an education. Streisand is excellent in the leading role (though I would have liked to have seen her male "look" made more realistic), and Mandy Mandy Patinkin and Amy Irving were equally as good. The Michel Legrand and Alan and Marilyn Bergman score won a well-deserved Academy Award. Rated PG-13.

Note: I've added this film to my list of favorite films. If you'd like to get a copy of that list, send an email to: bginbc@aol.com and put FAVORITES in the subject line.

B. Heard TWO BY TWO (Hachette Audio), written by Nicholas Sparks and read by Ari Fliakos. The novel features a father of a young girl who seemingly had it all: a beautiful wife and daughter, loving family and successful career. ... Then, within a few months, his life falls apart—and he has to start all over again. ...I found it very believable, and I really felt for the characters. I also liked how it was told from the father's viewpoint. ... The book would be great for reading at the beach or anywhere else you just want to forget about any problems you might be experiencing.

8. Technology tip

SCAM ALERT (skip to the second paragraph to see why): ... a lot of folks are getting the following warning on Facebook:

If one of your contacts accepts it, you will also be hacked, so make sure that all your friends know it. Thanks. Forwarded as received. Hold your finger down on the message. At the bottom in the middle it will say forward. Hit that then click on the names of those in your list and it will send to them.

Here's why it is a scam: In general, you can tell by the fact that it gets forwarded to you by many other folks and/or you are then asked to send it out to others . . . For more information, please click:

11. Thought for the day

Once, there was an older man who was broke, living in a tiny house and owned a beat up car. He was living off of $99 social security checks. At 65 years of age, he decide things had to change. So he thought about what he had to offer. His friends raved about his chicken recipe. He decided that this was his best shot at making a change.

He left Kentucky and traveled to different states to try to sell his recipe. He told restaurant owners that he had a mouthwatering chicken recipe. He offered the recipe to them for free, just asking for a small percentage on the items sold. Sounds like a good deal, right?

Unfortunately, not to most of the restaurants. He heard NO over 1000 times. Even after all of those rejections, he didn't give up. He believed his chicken recipe was something special. He got rejected 1009 times before he heard his first yes.

With that one success Colonel Hartland Sanders changed the way Americans eat chicken. Kentucky Fried Chicken, popularly known as KFC, was born.

Remember: Never give up and always believe in yourself.
