A. Cynthia, my beautiful bride, and I:

(1) Continued to hunker down in Week 25 of the corona pandemic. Doing so, we always smile when we see the sunflowers outside our back windows. We get a special kick out of the one in the middle who needs to wear sunglasses.

(2) Enjoyed our recent outside meal at Post 25 Kitchen & Lounge in Arden. My cheeseburger was tasty, and Cynthia really liked her ribeye steak. Make sure you ask for the sweet potato fries. They were outstanding.

(3) Had delicious DoughP doughnuts at the Underground Cafe in downtown Asheville. There were perhaps the best we've ever had!

B. THUMBS UP to SART for its recent virtual production of COUPLES. It was a lot of fun and extremely well-acted. .. Pictured: (top) Chelsey Gaddy who introduced the performance; and (bottom) actors Karen Covington-Yow, John Hall, Melissa (Missy) Stone, Betsy Fregoso, Ariel Casale, Lara Hollaway and Mike Yow. ... Kudos, also, to Michelle Coletti for her spot-on direction.

C. I was on twice this past week on WPVM.

D. Condolences to:

- (1) Laura Liberti Klimitas and family on the passing of Paul E. Klimitas, Laura's husband. .

***** BLAINESWORLD BEST AWARD *****

This week, it goes to Korean House—one of our favorite restaurants in the Asheville area.

Unfortunately, it closed last month after being in business since 2014.

The eatery was owned by Christina Im and her brother Jayson Im. The two of them were always friendly, as was their staff.

The food was fantastic. We never had a bad meal there.

We'll especially miss the fun times at the many party gatherings we had there after seeing a show at Asheville Community Theatre.

According to Jayson, "We had eight more years left on this lease, and we thought we'd be in Asheville forever. I loved this place and had no reason to leave.

"Who would have thought a pandemic would happen?" he added. "All that momentum got shifted away, and with that depression and ... we never in our biggest dreams thought we would leave this building."

We wish both Christina and Jayson much luck in their future endeavors and hope that we may be fortunate enough to see them return to the Asheville restaurant scene.

2. FYI

I was speaking to my friend Steve Byas recently, and he shared the following quote from his doctor:

"If you get the flu and COVID at the same time, it could be devastating and possibly kill you."

Even if you are not a fan of flu shots, methinks that this year is a good time to reconsider your thinking because of the above reason. For more information, please click: Here.

4. Reviews

A. Loved LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL on TCM. This lively documentary celebrates 1950s rock 'n' roll through archival clips of the era and concert footage filmed during the 1970s. Among the many artists featured are Bill Haley and the Comets, Fats Domino, the Shirelles, Little Richard, Bo Diddley and Chuck Berry. You won't be able to stop singing along to the music. Rated PG.

Note: I've added this film to my list of all-time favorite films. If you'd like to get a copy of this list, send an email to: bjinbc@aol.com and put FAVORITES in the subject line.

B. Liked THE OUTSIDER on TCM, the story of a real-life brave Native American who fights in WWII and helps to raise the flag at Iwo Jima. Tony Curtis gives a fine performance as Ira Hayes, though you need to view it through the eyes of 1961 audiences and put aside the fact that Bronx-born Bernard Schwartz (who changed his name to Curtis) is the son of Jewish immigrants from Hungary. It just wouldn't be acceptable today. I also liked the work of James Franciscus. NR, but appropriate for anybody over the age of 12.

7. Clips/Websites

A. The Turtles are arguably the greatest rock group of all time!

(1) As mentioned previously, this section will feature music by The Turtles—either their recordings and/or covers of their music by others.

I'd especially love to see any recording you may have done of "Happy Together."

Send it to: bginbc@aol.com and put THE TURTLES in the subject line.

Note: Even if you did not do a recording, I welcome anything done by others—not only of "Happy Together," but any other Turtles' song.

(2) For this week, please find this performance from The Umbrella Academy: Here.

B. Video of the week

Thanks, Marvin Sadovsky, for sharing this one:

If you are over 60 or know somebody who is ... or if you've ever had a problem with a Zoom call that was a disaster because some on it did not know what they were doing ... then you MUST see this clip:

8. Technology tip

You can protect your phone battery by avoiding exposure to extreme temperatures. Repeated heat exposure damages the battery, and so does allowing your phone to get too cold

If your phone overheats, it can cause data loss and corruption or even battery leakage, causing it to catch fire. If your phone gets too cold, the battery will die more quickly - plus, you risk damaging the battery.

For some useful ways to prevent this from happening, please see #4 when you click: Here.
